CANTON, MISS.

FOR PRESIDENT.

HENRY CLAY, of Ky. FOR VICE PRESIDENT. JOHN TYLER, of Va.

Subject to the decision of a National Convention FOR GOVERNOR. EDWARD TURNER. FOR CONGRESS. ADAM I., BINGAMAN. REUBEN DAVIS. FOR SECRETARY OF STATE. DUDLEY S. JENNINGS. FOR STATE TREASURER, SILAS BROWN. FOR AUDITOR OF PUBLIC ACCOUNTS, PHILIP DIXON.

of Madison county pursuant to law was in our paper of to-day that the books are gentlemen?- Free Trader. to have comenced on Monday last in this now open in this place for subscription place; but strange to say, we have had of stock in this company. no Court, and will not have one.

The holding of Court was not defeated by the resignation of a Sheriff or with their persons. No-Madison county is as yet saved from that disgrace, and we hope she ever will be.

But the wheels of justice have been cloged, stopped-and by whom-by one from whom it should have least been looked for-by the Judge, and that too in our humble opinion without any cause.

To lot the case go fairly before the world, we will give a history of every thing connected with the failure of the

About 11 o'clock in the morning Jas. C. Mitchell, Esq., and Gen. H. S. Foote, addressed the people on the subject of the present embarrassed and distressed condition of the country, and recommened the petitioning of the Governor to convene the Legislature for the purpose of passing some law to prevent the sacceedings of that meeting we publish today. In addition to this, the house in which Court had heretofore been held, was destroyed, and the new one was not done, and had not been received by the Board of Police for the county. These are all, and every reason why Court was not held, although another house was page of our paper-we would commend offered, in which his Honor could have sat and fully discharged his duty to himself, to his station, and executed the trust reposed in him by the people, and which the laws rendered obligatory.

Court is the only excuse offered why it They have received the opprobation the great sacrifice of property which was not done.

and contempt, by the community -- been played better by any one. solves itself into its original state when spoken before-of those favourably, we Therefore every man's rights are judged and mea- have no cause to censure now-of those sucred by his strength.

benefit to debtors-for the reason that ing. most of the debts sued on in the Circuit To-night is the last night, and is for Court are due home creditors, while those the benefit of Miss Caroline and Therese that belong to foreigners are filed in the Chapman, when the truly splendid Federal Court when there will be no opera of the Mountaineers will be repstopping of court.—Then the circuit resented. As the play itself is decidedly to wit:—A law to prevent the sale of procourt not being held will give the foreign good, and the young ladies are both creditor the advantage of getting his favorites, we bespeak for them a full and of its fairly appraised cash value—an judgement, and collecting his money crowded house. while the home creditor stands with his hands tied, the evenues of justice closed upon him, the foreign creditors debt paid, friend W. H. McCardle, who was woundand his lost.

The object of all laws is to protect its own citizens, and secure them in their rights, before those of foreigners, but in this case we conceive that end has been missed, and the rights of home creditors tentionally misrepresented us. sacrificed to foreigners.

In making these remarks we would not Whig Advocate, intimates that we know wish to be considered as reflecting upon or desiring to impair ethe rights which in figuring, and thereby made us out a Excellency the Governor of the State, foreigners have to justice and the enforce- bad figure in addition. If friend Nelson and lay before him the proceedings of only, that the citizens of the state have the first claim upon the laws, for the pro-

We must be permitted to acknowledge our thanks to the Post master at Jack- But we cannot see how we misrepreson, for a let of old newspapers which sented you, as we only stated that you he forwarded to us last week by the had valued these cargoes too highly stage. We hope that he will continue which it seems you discovered and corto be equally attentive, and that all rected shortly afterwards. Our object every place he visits.

The same fellow passed through this place he visits, until he abandons the portance to Natchez as well as to the vile arts he uses for a livelihood.

are in circulation.

The object of the company is to en courage domestic manufacture in cottons and woollens, that we may not be de-Clerk, as has sometimes been the case pendant for our supplies of such artiin this State. Our Sheriff and Clerk cles hereafter from abroad. The facto- the citizens of Madison county, held in still hold on to their commissions, and ries, when a sufficient amount of stock the Court-house yard, Dr. T. J. Catchwere ready and willing to discharge their is taken, will be established at Millhaven ings and Major D. W. Haley were called duty if it had been required of them by in Simpson county, or at some other upon to preside over the meeting, wherethe Judge. They did not shrink from place within forty miles of the seat of upon they adjourned the crowd to meet their duty like cravens-they did not Government. As the object is a lauda- in the Court-house; Maj. Chas. B. Green resign like the base seekers of populari- ble one, it is hoped that all who may and Jas. Grafton were there made Vice ty, that have in some of the counties have money to invest in stocks will call Presidents, and J. T. Dearing, Esq. and found their way into office, which they and examine the charter of this Campa- Gen. W. F. Jones, Secretaries of the were unworthy to hold, and polluted ny, which will have banking privileges meeting. The object of the meeting

Dep'ty. We have felt that the Advo- Tupper, Jesse Mabry, Samuel Hamblin, cate has for the last two or three months Robt. G. Anderson, Israel Spencer, M. correspondent, "Lorrain," the soft melo- tee the meeting then adjourned to condy of "Hal," when he sang of Love, as vene again at two o'clock. now he sings of Evening Hour, together with Edgars racy article on the Gallon Law, and the fine moral essays of "Philanthropia" on Gambling-of course not intended for them-was all it contained to recommend it to their notice. But respondents should not become infected tions. with the prevailing malady of the times, as we now and then are-we hope to make our paper more interesting to the fairer portion of our readers. For this weeks paper we have selected "A couple of stray leaves," for their especial benefit, which the ladies will find on the first it to them-and also, the married gentle-

The want of a house in which to hold Addams and Lady are still in our village. plaintiff and defendant, by preventing

We are gratified to learn that our old ed in the duel with Mr. Hagan is rapidly recovering.

EXPLANATION. - The editors of the Port Gibson Correspondent and the Can-

Our respected friend of the Canton nothing of figures, because one of the compositors in our office made a mistake mittee was appointed to wait upon his of the 4th inst. he will see the correctihis meeting. tion in estimating the value of two car- On motion of T. C. Tupper, it was or- has been asserted by a close thinking goes that were shipped from ports within dered that the proceedings of the meet- and critical mind, that Sir Walter Scott

True-you only added-an [0.] ed in the Madison Whig Advocate.

| packages after they have lain sufficient- | was only to call your attention to the WHIG ADVOCATE. Iy long in his office, -he will be kind mistake that it might be rectified, and enough to forward them on for the use of not to intimate that you had intentionally misrepresented their value.

Star, take a glass of wine with Howard cient Roman or Grecian or Hebrew.

With all our hearts. And we would be pleased to return the compliment.

For the Madison Whig Advocate.

PUBLIC MEETING. At a large and respectable meeting having been previously explained by Judge J. C. Mitchell and Gen. H. S. Foote, We have been told by a friend of ours a committee of thirteen was appointed hat the ladies have a great aversion to druft a preamble and resolutions exhe Madison Whig Advocate, because it pressive of the sense of the meeting, has heretofore contained nothing, but which committee consisted of the followsame versus same, Sheriff, Marsahl and ing gentlemen:-Henry Phillips, T. C. contained but little to interest the female D. Mitchell, Wm. Wade, Wm. J. Austin, part of our readers, as the occasional Wm. Joiner, Wm. J. Denson, Wm. E. beautiful lines of our worthy poetical Harreld. At the request of the commit-

> The meeting having convened at two time. Thus the effect of mental action Let us enter the field of illustration o'clock, pursuant to adjournment, the committee made the following report.

tion upon the subject which they were appointed to investigate, beg leave to offer the following Preamble and Resolu-intense and pervading, exists throughthreatening the destruction of the fairest prospects, withering the brightest and fondest hopes, and paralizing the ability and energies of our best citizens of every class; unless its course can be promptly and efficiently arrested by some proper and competent legislative interposition. And whereas, we feel Messrs. Chapman and Hamilton's well assured that the most important Dramatic corps, together with Mr. A. A. benefit can be conferred, both on the

Resolved, That should the Executive convene the Legislature, our Senator and Representatives be instructed to advocate and support the following measures, perty for cash, at less than two thirds Insolvent, or Bankrupt Law; and a law for the redemption of land by the defendants in execution within a given pe-

Mr. Calhoun then moved that the resolution in relation to the appraisment of property be so amended as to read three fourths, instead of two thirds. This ton Whig Advocate, have no doubt unin- amendment being concurred in, the original preamble and resolutions thus a mended, were unanimously adopted.

T. J. CATCHINGS, Prests D. W. HALEY, CHAS. B. GREEN. JAS. GRAFTON, WM. F. Jones, | Secretaries. J. T. DEARING, vagabond should be scourged in every to complete an object of such high im-State at large. The selling of these beauty and strength; in its moral power impresses its character on society.

truths and thoughts, which are transmit- in all that pertains to the greatness and a -18 mass that was more and ted with those it receives to the next, elevation of society. Glorious mind's portant. and thus on, each adding to the chain how grand, how glorious, how mighty in he they matter of sighting, there is of causes through periods on periods of its effects!

Your Committee, after due delibera- of investigation is naturally suggested, minds immortality. Error has no affine folks who are ready to chell the first of the committee.

The superior mind is the heart and in- est, most sublime, is in its nature eternal. Whereas, an embarrassment, deep, the mind fully developed, mighty in its magnificence, but energies; rich, great and profound in than the here of the llind, it remains un- folks have to stand the rack at each old out a large and fair portion of our State, thought; beautiful, eloquent, and bene, touched. We propose not its analysis, large a month I said to be a month of the state of th volent in feeling; the mind that ever but to enter that sphere where the great ways ! "timeral, I suppose you want soars on elevated wing, weds itself to system of truth revolve. truth, and adorns itself with all that is The assertion is not strange, that as how things are gittin on occur grand and attractive, and whose work, when the Deity spoke the universe into smart he all over the contractive manship bears the impress of unrivalled being, he likewise set apart certain great skill and enduring beauty; the mind and prominent laws or trothe for its that illumines morally and intellectually; complete and glorious government all spromating, and the casule and radi that comprehends the intricate and stu- These truths stand out strong characters rouds about half made, and the more acts for general well-being.

of all who have witnessed their perform- must otherwise occur-thus enabling our of this mind in the nature and associated Whether this reason is sufficient, why lances, and for ourselves, we can say we cistizens to discharge their debts; and effects of its action. In reference to Court was not held we leave to the com- have never been more pleased with any preventing the creditor from suffering a their effects, there are two classes of munity to decide, but believing ourselves dramatic representations than we have certain loss: And whereas, an Insolvent what are styled superior minds. The that no good can result to the country with those offered us by the company Law would place the debtor in a situa- superiority of a majority of gifted minds by such means, or such acts They have now in our town.

a disorganizing tendancy tending to Mr. Addams is certainly one of the and honestly surrendered all his properstrikingly brilliant. They appear at corrupt the minds of the people, and make first of actors, and we do not commend ty, to begin anew with a prospect of be- once on an eminence; and a dazzing them believe that laws are but like the him too highly when we say that there ingultimately able to pay any balance brightness encircles them. The public whims of children, to be complied with, are characters in which he can have but that may remain against him: And eye is caught and held in admiration when it is the pleasure of the people, and few equals, and no superiors. Sir Ed- whereas, a redemption will have a ten- and the exulting praises of the quick to be resisted and annulled when it suits ward Mortimer, in the Iron Chest, was dency to attach our citizens to their popular voice follow. They operate on their convenience. The enforcement of more than well played, and some scenes country, while it would enable debtors those powers and susceptibilities of mind. the laws become a by-word of mockery, in Richard the Third, could not have in execution to recover an estate that whose action is ever superficial and might otherwise pass forever from him transitory; their sphere of influence, neither respected or obeyed-society re- Of the rest of the Company we have and his children for a nominal price- the emotions and passions, the gratification of present tastes and desires, afford-Resolved, That the Executive of the ing a rich banquet of whatever is pleasunfavourably, our good nature will not State be respectfully requested to con- ing, dazzling and exciting. They live We do not conceive that it is of any permit us to deal harshly with at part- vene the Legislature as early as practi- in the mind, transported by excitement. short though bright and full of glory is the career of this mind. The excitement is followed as a consequent by an opposite taste of mind; common not only to the individual, but to communities. It matters not however great or shining the efforts of mind, if they possess not that which will impress and continue to impress other minds. These must be spread out before mind an inexhaustible feast, or the dazzling and exciting moment past, it will sink into languor and forget the causes of excitement. It is then no guaranty that mind will live in sand trumpets sound its name through- Soul-enkindling thought! How great should take it out on grambling Lock Hourly minds are springing up around us, more grand, more resplendent for the time than the stars which have shone through ages, and passing into utter forgetfulness. Some outlive others; some shine through a number of generations; some die with the moment that gave them greatness. On this principle it tection enforcement, and preservation of this state a few weeks since. Perhaps ing, signed by the Presidents and counting the will admit now that figures (or rather long that figures (or rather long) and critical mind, that Sir Walter Scott long, signed by the Presidents and counting the will admit now that figures (or rather long) and critical mind, that Sir Walter Scott long, signed by the Presidents and counting the will admit now that figures (or rather long) and critical mind, that Sir Walter Scott long, signed by the Presidents and counting the will admit now that figures (or rather long) and critical mind, that Sir Walter Scott long, signed by the Presidents and counting the will admit now that figures (or rather long) and critical mind, that Sir Walter Scott long, signed by the Presidents and counting the will admit now that figures (or rather long) and critical mind, that Sir Walter Scott long, signed by the Presidents and counting the long and critical mind, that Sir Walter Scott long are long to the long and critical mind, that Sir Walter Scott long are long and critical mind, that Sir Walter Scott long are long and critical mind, that Sir Walter Scott long are long and critical mind, that Sir Walter Scott long are long are long and critical mind, that Sir Walter Scott long are long ar rather suited to the present state of so-

For the Malifin Whig Advocate. this mind may be obscure, unobserved, take a little combet a his own was placed to but its progress is sure and onward, of. But somehow I find, Squire, a lande income that the statement of A Cultivated Mind.

but its progress is sure and onward, etc.

"Nothing is more delightful or instruc
"Nothing is more delightful or instruc-

ever; belong to no special time; have up with-till it gor so at last that all same lofty sympathies, give to human new relations and their bearings, and the rest of creation. But as I said to act, yet exist, the common property of mary school to the highest departments form and 1 sat down and went a superior mind of our age evolves new on the "wings of the morning" through the said when he said when to-day, are the causes of mental growth Behold the temple of truth, one of its thinking and that is, bedracial loss on and elevation to-morrow. Here a theme creatures. Truth is the index of the the tast some of their bands of the the immortality of superior mind. ty with the immortal. Truth, of all the Give a min right delices a day to make pendous relations of man, and feels and in the outline of the wast machinery, cross yet about lagging, and the Banks, to have dispersing throughout, life, beauty and I do think, mongh a war would give me strength, giving birth to enterprise new a considerable boost up in the world in walls igor to the spirit of improvement-de-military runk, the man who knows the derived eloping the energies of saind to their peace is, according to the thind Book, noblest stature-opening and multiplying new spheres of action-and bringing man from darkness and ignorance into light and refinement. Thus inti- that is in communiting the sacross of mately interwoven in the welfare and such a man as Gineral Sout to manage progress of man, they are the only all mamers of this nature, and there is means,-he has none other-of his glory, only one thing more I think is wanting. his power and his happiness. Moreover, and that the people are entitled to, and that is some one to manage the assess they are by divine gift the possession of matters of the country as well. I go an all time. The mind, then, the discove- the principle, that if a man does night in rer of a truth in the moral, physical or using the best plough he can get up his political world, is from the association farm, and moving the best grain-was an with that of truth and its glorious effects immortal. The mind, the truth, and its the country has, the people are empired the voice of the future, though a thoueffects, are joined in eternal union to it, and if party firsts grundle, there the inducement to youthful mind to pen- what "party" has done already for more etrate nature's areave-to analize her works that it may link its destiny with some great truth or law in her govern- stop and eat peaches with you welca the or ment, and live forever, conquering and they are ripe," and as I remember you ciety, its tastes and desires which are in has always been your notion, and that early apples in June, and then first up angle, and you would do so as soon as you see all the peaches afterwards.

tive to the schollar amid his long and er, soaring higher and higher, until it mitage, and though on have his patient researches, than to observe the stamps a lasting impression. If it all your place as good a man to manage the sent. J. J. Chewing has resigned the Presi- multiplied causes and their effects, which feets the surface it likewise penetrates Bank as the timeral has to manage the account of the president of the p The tattooed man.—We see that this vulgar imposter is traversing the State, vulgar imposter is traversing the State, dency of the Commercial and Rail Road excitement, profoundered and recommercial and r manimously elected to fill the vacancy. all periods of time, from creation's dawn and greatness of thought; thought which derstand to be best and he calculated and greatness of thought; thought which derstand to be best and he calculated and greatness of thought; thought which derstand to be best and he calculated and greatness of thought; thought which derstand to be best and he calculated and greatness of thought; thought which derstand to be best and he calculated and greatness of thought; thought which derstand to be best and the calculated and greatness of thought; thought which derstand to be best and the calculated and greatness of thought; thought which derstand to be best and the calculated and greatness of thought; thought which derstand to be best and the calculated and to the present, governed and influenced expands and expands under the study of as the timeral does to Mr. The Barrey Mississippi Rail Road Company .-- by similar causes; that whatever refines other minds. Imagine first a single and his calcount. The fact is, was and the General I always thought was made place, and never were we more disgust- Gen. Qutman, the President of the com- and exalts man in one nation or genera- light to shine into a dark room, them of president of the com-We have not seen, and we venture to say, days, for the purpose of effecting a sale a more vile humbugger never imposed of the bonds transferred to the company produce like effects in another. The countless lights rush in and produce a rd veneral to the company a more vile humbugger never imposed of the bonds transferred to the company at the late session of our Legislature.

upon any community. We think the variable of the bonds transferred to the company at the late session of our Legislature.

We sincerely hope that he will be able tor, is unchanging and unchangeable tor, is unchang bonds will place beyond a doubt, the and loveliness, as likewise in its ignor-We learn that five dollar Brandon completion of the road to Canton-and ance, its darkness and its debasement; are in their very nature immortal. The bills that have been altered to hundreds in two years we hope to be able to dine as the same mind possessed by the anof the Mississippian, and sup with our The beautiful, the sublime in the ma-MILHAVEN MANUFACTURING COMPANY. Craftsman Nelson, of the Canton Whig. terial world, whether seen by the naked All that is great and good in religion or wealth at the second seco CIRCUIT COURT. - The Circuit Court -It will be seen from an advertisement God speed the time! What say you eye, or as exhibited in the rich pencilings of descriptive genius, exerted the tual character of society, is the fruit of put in the area, always as the fruit of same emotions in the mind of the past its influence. With its action are associated and it almost ware him to also and ciated the final glory and elevation of home. I believe you was the only man be The beautiful, the sublime in the heart man. It influences every department of that was able to outwork the tilescale and intellect, created the same delight- the vast fabric of society, producing counger than he was he'd made a track of ful and exalted feelings, elicited the order, beauty and permanency; unfold pick on you as he did of pours much all nature the same high dignity and gran- strengthens in closer union its countless. I am considerably washingtoned at your deur in the ancient world, as in the mod- various ties. It creates and exercises Gaucial has gone to home and weather the ern. Truth, too, ever powerful, ever every mean request to govern, to pro- I find non-what out out. We wan flower the toglorious, under whatever form, in reli- tect and to enlarge, moral, or social, or dont seem to want my services inches, pogion, literature or politics, exerted the political welfare. The arts in their use, and I don't complain of their all did report to same effect in the mental elevation, in fulness, their elegance, and their chaste. To get a chance Down Elect, has be -the government and preservative of so- ness, wear its impression; and its cha rank'd me all hallow, as he does printy when the iety in the ancient as in the modern racter is inscribed on all that is useful, much every man new-array at these world. Indeed, the many glorious cau- beautiful and grand in literature through- ver, Gineral Sout delay larger one, and ses which have, in times past, expanded, out the wide field of its relations. The said if there was any fighting to be done beautified and strengthened mind, do yet young mind in its growth from the prinankind, to be followed by similar exalt- in learning, is fed, nourished, and invi- mark I complified to the 2d formation in ng and beneficient effects. These cau-gorated by the aliment it affects and tell'd am to stand from and along on es are the minds own creation. The Knowledge it creates and sends forth orders but tioneral Scott's that it was truth, unfolds new beauties and powers out the length and breadth of the land. how then march and follow him to of mind: these become causes which Thus it enters into and becomes the life. Historian or Historian, or any other place operate in the development of the mind the soul of every fiber of the social beginning with the development of another: this gives its increase of frame; and thus has a monumental glory and in that way they would not seen have a Fair-field, but would be some of sail by illumining and blessing mankind, done; and all I've got be say about it year a President does right in calling into the tended, if you could possibly so manage es would be ripe in September, they matters, to go to farming. I know this would be down upon you to get a my at Prests.

The superiority of the other class of minds consists in action, deep, steady and abiding, at the same time brilliant and think has some right to go and dig his some quiet and rest-that a good and rest-than a good some quiet and rest-than a good powerful. The first developments of own potatoes and hoe his own corn, and on us will have cause to first that and the second to be seen that a good to be seen to be seen that a good to be seen to be seen that a good to be seen to be see